

THE WORLD
needs science, and science
NEEDS WOMEN.

APPLY NOW

You could be awarded $60,000
for research in a STEM field.

L'Oréal's For Women in Science program has recognized more than 2,000 women scientists in over 100 countries since the program began in 1998. We're looking for five exceptional female scientists in the United States to be role models for the next generation and to help encourage girls to pursue careers in science.

Candidates must have a conferred PhD and have started postdoctoral research by July 1, 2015. Must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident to apply.

Applications due March 20, 2015.
